

Client List

Our clients are as diverse and varied as the projects they bring to the table. Some projects involve simple programming, while others involve every aspect of creative production.

Here is what some of our satisfied customers have to say about us.

"Cris was professional and a lot of fun to work with. More importantly, the finished product blew everybody away."

Catherine Ryan Hyde

Author - "Pay It Forward"

"If it weren't for Cris Mitchell and Coastal Fog Productions you would probably still see the same "under construction" notice that was there for at least a year when you typed in johngorka.com.

Cris's background in music and the visual arts combined with his internet and computer graphics know-how made him the perfect web-site designer for me. He has an excellent eye and an up-to-date knowledge of the technological possibilities and options available today.

And when you are up and running he had lots of good ideas about how to keep your site fresh and lively. Check out his work." Thank you Cris and Coastal Fog Productions.

John Gorka

Redhouse Records Recording Artist

"When I set out to do my first CD "One Swell Foop", it was suggested by a friend that I use Coastal Fog Productions for the final mastering of my CD. I didn't really know what to expect from Coastal Fog, but on completion of the Final Mastered Mix and Artwork , I was very pleasantly surprised that Electronic / Acid Jazz CD mastering could come out as good as good as this .

It was all thanks to Coastal Fog Productions and their excellent ear and attention to detail in the mastering process. They were patient through the process of re- equalization and the special edits and fades needed to complete this odd new music CD. Coastal Fog Productions acheived all the special needs that I requested and felt were important.

By the praise I have received from hundreds of Radio DJ's, as well as the producers at MTV's "Real World", I think we were on the right track..

I would highly recommend taking your next musical project to the folks at Coastal Fog Productions for that extra attention to detail that I felt was important."
